"Next to Queen Anne's Chapel, so historic, the first house of worship in Warrensburgh appears to have been a log church standing near what is known as Snook's Corners.

All trace of it is now gone, In the log church the Rev. James Dampster officiated for some time; no record of his ministry can now be found,

He left a character for sterling piety, coupled with activity and no little eccentricity"

The Rev. James Dempster, a "cord" of Marriages and Baptisms in vicinity of
Tryon County
1763-1803.

In an old record book of the Rev. James Dempster, who labored in Tryon County, we find the accompanying list of marriages and baptisms.

This volume is an old leather covered book, 6 x 9 1/2 in in dimensions, and bears the date of Friday Dec; 13 1763, with the words "Joel Dempsters book 1803" it also gives the date of the Rev. James Dempster's death,

Official acts are here recorded as performed in some thirty villages and hamlets, embracing a wide territory,

According to a note, the Rev. James Dempster was born in Edinburgh, Scotland, on Sept; 21, 1740, and died in the town of Florida, Montgomery Co; N.Y. on May 10th; 1804, the words "Servant of God well done" were to be inscribed on his tombstone.

The first thirty-two pages were doubtless devoted to sermon notes, as there is the conclusion of a sermon on page 32. the first thirty-one pages are missing, but fortunately the records are intact, there are records of business transactions scattered through the book as well.

" A Register of Marriages beginning the first of July, 1778 Tryon County."
